The Rev. Darren W. Utley, Associate Pastor

May 2018

Over the last four months I have been walking through the confirmation process with some wonderful young people. We have looked at everything from creation to salvation with all kinds of stops in between. In Presbyterian circles we spend a lot of time wringing our hands about the future of the church. What we seldom remember is that for us a part of the future of the church is walking our halls, singing in our services and being sent by us on mission trips. Our confirmands are just starting their journeys of faith and faithfulness. For a short time, all of us here are able to care for them and help them grow into faithful members of the body of Christ of the next decades.

We are often reminded that we as a congregation make promises when babies are baptized into our community. We make promises to help those children grow and mature in their faithfulness to God. Sometimes we think of this as providing good children and youth programming culminating in a confirmation class. We do an excellent job with the programming thanks to the hard work of faithful volunteers. Even so, that promise goes beyond providing programming. We have an opportunity to model faithfulness to our young people all of the time. Studies show that one of the best indicators that a young person will maintain their faith through and past college years is the number of faithful adults in addition to their parents who they know and who demonstrate care for them. This year many of you have been praying for our youth with the Pray For Me campaign.

Fairfield folks are great about showing care and concern for our young people. Many of you often show interest in the lives of our youth.

May 20th is Pentecost Sunday and will be the day that we recognize seniors. Our confirmands will profess their faith on that day as well. We will be led in worship by our youth as we celebrate all of these milestones. It will be a big day of celebration of not only the coming of the Holy Spirit but also of all of our youth here at Fairfield. I ask that you pray for our confirmands: Henry Atkinson, Matthew Arnette, Taylor Hale, Mason Harding, Heather Lowery, McKenzie Marker, Hannah Reasor, Emily Sutton, Nicole Sutton, Victoria Tanner, SuLing Trexler. I also ask you to pray for our seniors as they finish up their final year of high school and make plans for the next stage of their lives: Zachary Hale, Greyson Palmore, Josh Patterson, Abby Reasor, Wyatt Schneck, Cooper Schwartz, Kaitlyn Sorensen, Kelsey Young. We hope that you will be sure to be in worship on the 20th to celebrate these wonderful young people. Be sure to say hello to your young people even if they just lower their heads and walk past you. They still know that you care even if they are overcoming shyness. For all of you who are active in the lives of our young people, the parents and grandparents, the aunts and uncles, great aunts and uncles, and so many more; we thank you and encourage you to continue to model faithfulness and love to our young folks.

CHURCH LIBRARY News

Evening and morning and at noon, will I pray and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. Psalm 55 v 17

Thursday May 3, 2018 is National Day of Prayer. For me this brings to mind a morning devotion that I read not long ago on the importance of prayer in our lives. As part of the devotion there was this thought for the day: "Daily prayers will diminish your cares" (God's Little Devotional Book for Moms). As Christians prayer should be an important and vital part of our lives.

In our libraries you will find many titles that will help us as we strive to strengthen our prayer lives. Look for Discovering the Power of Prayer, How to Pray and A Year of Living Prayerfully. In the children's library you will find The Child's Own Book of Prayers and Hymns, A Child's Treasury of Best Loved Prayers and Prayers for Little Hands.

May we always be mindful of the importance of prayer in our spiritual lives.

Elizabeth Covington

A National Day of Prayer service will be held at Historic Polegreen on Thursday, May 3rd at 5:30pm. This short service will provide an opportunity to pray for our government, first responders, military, schools, and environment.

Fabric Needed

Making pillow cases for children at MCV in the cancer unit and the intensive care unit. Cheerful prints and bright colors are the best. One yard of fabric is needed to make on pillow case.

If you can sew and would like to make cases yourself, that would be great also. To turn in any fabric or cases, please drop off at the Cornerstone Sunday School Class which meets in the church library.

Thank you in advance for helping to bless these children and brighten their day.

New Beginnings Church

Opportunities to serve the Lord Jesus Christ often times come to us in unexpected ways. We received a call a while back from a new congregation in Hanover County. They were looking for a new home to worship. They had outgrown their space at New Hanover Presbyterian Church and needed something bigger than the fairly small room where they were meeting.

Something very compelling was taking place. We didn't understand it at first. Nesting a congregation wasn't anything we had been talking about or even thinking about. Yet, something felt right about this. From the first phone call through the subsequent meetings (in a few short weeks) we felt an immediate kinship with the leadership of New Beginnings Church. To a person your Elders felt the Providence of God was moving us.

Fairfield Presbyterian Church has a long tradition of being a mission oriented church. This opportunity allows us to use our building to do mission within our own county. There was an immediate need for New Beginnings Church and we took the opportunity to meet it.

They are a predominantly African-American congregation whose Pastor is a graduate not only of Virginia Union University but also has his Th.M. and Ph.D. from Union Presbyterian Seminary where he studied under President Brian Blount. The more we talked the more we discovered that we have more in common than we have differences. Dr. Larry Enis, who is an adjunct Professor at both Randolph-Macon College and Union Presbyterian Seminary, is a scholarly Pastor who believes in intellectually sound sermons and solid Biblical teaching. While his small congregation of about 100 members is not related to a particular denomination, we recognize that they are very Presbyterian in many ways.

After several meetings, your Session has welcomed them to share our home with us. They will worship at 11:00 a.m. in the Family Center. They will bring their own sound system and other equipment so they will not be using any of ours. Occasionally, they will use other individual rooms in the building for Bible Study and other small group activities. Our covenant with them is for a six month trial period. They will be reimbursing us for shared expenses.

We believe we have resolved any logistical issues including parking but if we have not then we will do so during the six month period. Please make them feel welcome. We are looking forward to finding ways to share in the mission of Jesus Christ together. In a day when division seems to grow wider and wider, we feel God is leading us to narrow the divide. We are counting on you to prayerfully support this new opportunity. If you have any questions at all, please talk to Darren or Steve.
