December 2021

Dear Friends,

We, as the Christian Church, have entered a new year. For us the Season of Advent is the start of our Christian calendar. During the course of the year, the various seasons and holy days will carry us through a primer of the Christian faith. It is a wondrous journey for us that allows us to renew our faith and deepen our understanding.

What an appropriate place for us to begin than with the eager expectation of something new. Of course, we know that Advent leads us into Christmas where we celebrate the Incarnation of God With Us: the birth of the Babe of Bethlehem. But it also is a season to remind us that One Who came and dwelt among us will return. Our lesson in the Christian faith is one that begins and ends with the full cycle of hope.

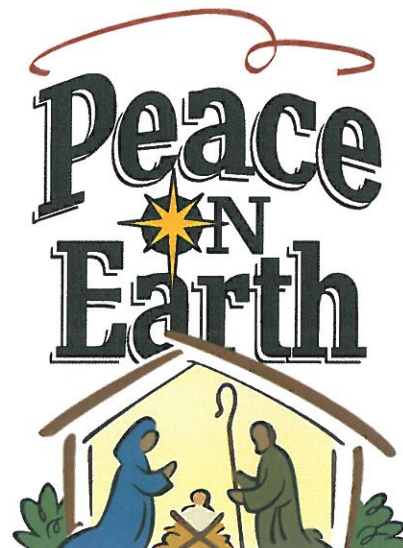

During this year's Advent, we will be going back to the basics in our sermons. We will be doing a series entitled "Advent in Four Voices" as we look at the four key words that we center this season around. You know them from the Advent candles: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love. I hope you will make every effort to worship with us to hear the stories that these four wonderful words share with us.

Regular attendance during the Season of Advent will help you keep your heart ready for the Good News of Christmas. There are so many competing forces to draw us away from the True meaning of this season. The discipline of regular worship will help you immensely as you try to keep your focus on the coming of the King of Kings.

In Christ's love,

p.s.: many of you have asked about our recent move. It has gone well, and we are happily in our smaller and simpler home. We don't have a home phone any longer, but voice mails left for me at the church come immediately to me and you can always call me on my cell phone. I enjoy the drive in from the new house and it is actually only ten minutes or so longer that the ride from our old house.

Dearest Fairfield Friends,
I had the best time when I returned to visit and spend time with you on October 17th! It was a wonderful day for me - full of reminiscing and catching up. The happiness and the warm glow lasted me for days and days! Thank you for the lovely reception and for all of you who came. I was the grateful recipient of a nice check, as well as a beautiful silver tea service that came complete with it's own humorous back story. My love for you goes on and I look forward to keeping up with your forever. You are a wonderful group and I'm so thankful for each of you. Blessings to all of you!

Jane Welborn

I would like to express my gratitude for having such a supportive church family. I appreciate all the cards, notes and personal expressions of sympathy I have received since the death of my husband, Ned. I will cherish the beautiful prayer shawl always.

Marge Wantz

The Men of the Church would like to thank the congregation for the food donated and the contributions for gift cards. They were able to help our 11 families this past Thanksgiving.

In lieu of putting together shoe boxes for Operation Christmas Child this year, we simply asked for donations to send to the organization. We never expected to collect $1,350! Our church members are simply awesome! Thank you so much for your donations. I'm sure the people at Samaritan's Purse will be able to put this money to good use for the children that receive the shoe boxes. What a joy this will be!

For those who have had losses – a loved one's passing, a relationship broken, a job lost, or other circumstances, we offer this special worship service. Let the holidays become a time of peace and reflection. We will pray and sing and light candles in celebration of life and for hope and healing in Christ, the Light of the World. Please join us.

Light of the World Advent Study

Please join us as we dive deep into the history of the birth of Christ. We will be studying the book "Light of the World: A Beginner's Guide to Advent" by Amy-Jill Levine. We will be learning more about the traditional Christmas stories, the events leading up to the birth of Christ, as well as some of the key people who played important roles in these stories. Our associate pastor, Rev. Shannon Hendricks, will be leading us in this study.

If you are interested in joining this study, please call Vicky Brady (804-938-1770) to let us know that you are interested. Once we have compiled a list of those who are interested, then we will get a consensus from the group concerning an evening that would work for our meeting time. Books will be available in the Narthex, and donations will be accepted to defray the cost of purchase. Please prayerfully consider joining us as we joyfully anticipate our celebration of the birth of Christ.

Looking for a new place to recycle your plastic grocery bags? You can bring them to church! Place them in the marked bins located in the Narthex and outside the Family Center. They will be used in delivering meals for Meals on Wheels. Please contact Janet Chelette for any questions.

"The angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for see I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David as Savior, who is the Messiah, "the Lord."' Luke 2 verses 10 & 11

As I write this article, we are about to enter into the season of Advent and Christmas. As we get into the busyness of the holiday season, let us always remember that we are celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ which is the real reason for celebrating.

In the midst of this Christmas season please take the time to slow down, reflect and enjoy some of the Christmas reading that you will find in our libraries. Look for The Christmas Light, An Amish Family Christmas and No Room At the Inn. In the children's library you will find Christmas Angels, The Littlest Angel and The First Christmas.

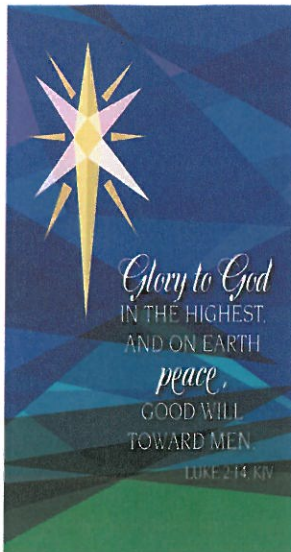

These wonderful treasures are in the libraries for you to enjoy. Christmas peace and joy to you and those you love.

CHRISTMAS JOY

SPECIAL OFFERINGS

CHURCH LEADERS—PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

A Gift Opens Doors — Proverbs 18:16

The Perfect Gift

In the story of God, as we tell it, there is a barrier that exists between the Created world and its Creator. A wall. Sin, we say, separates us from God, and separation from God is unbearable.

And our story goes on to say that God, seeing that we had no hope in ourselves of getting over, or through or around what separates us, offered us a gift in Jesus Christ who opens a door — a door we could not open ourselves.

What a gift!

But the story goes on to say that Jesus is the perfect gift; not only opening a door but coming through it. Our story says God is with us.

In Jesus, God joined with humanity, pointing the way to the end of our separation. And in his life, death and resurrection, so our story of God goes, Jesus is the door, now standing open. The giving continues because God is with us, still — and always.

Because being with us is part of God's story, being with others is part of our call.

The Christmas Joy Offering opens doors of opportunity for the leaders who are shaped and supported through our gifts — doors that lead to hopeful futures for young people at Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color. Our gifts open doors that lead to relief for church workers and their families when emergency needs arise.

Proverbs, a book of wisdom sayings, states that it's a person's gift that opens doors. As we give generously to the Christmas Joy Offering, we seek to not only meet needs, but to meet people, to come through the door that generosity opens. We open the door to celebrate "God with us!" We open the door with each and every student who will soon inspire and lead the world. We open the door with each and every church worker who helps us share God's story with the world.

The story of God, as we tell it, is not about a barrier, but about a gift. It's not about the separation, but about the gift of "being with." Please give generously to the Christmas Joy Offering, in celebration of God's perfect gift to us. Give because it brings us together, to open doors of relief and opportunity and to relationships that are part of God's story, a part of God's perfect gift to us.

Let us pray:

God, with us, we are grateful for your perfect gift, Jesus Christ. May we learn, through your open door to us, to be open to others and offer ourselves to those in need. Amen.

We will collect the Christmas Joy Offering on Christmas Eve at each service. A special bulletin will be in your bulletin for your offering.
