Christ for the World! We Sing

Unison Prayer of Confession

God of fire and wind, holy and powerful, mighty and mysterious, we are drawn by your Spirit to this place. As we gather and behold your glory, we become aware of our sin. We have ignored your word. We have rejected your gifts. We have failed in your work. Ignoring the truth of Pentecost, we exclude those different from us. We divide our loyalties, and we divide our hearts. Let your Spirit burn away our sins and fill us with faith and courage, so that we might live into the promise of this day and receive the fullness of all that you have prepared for us in Jesus Christ. (Silent prayer and reflection) Amen.

Words of Assurance

Leader: Friends, in Jesus Christ our sins are forgiven!

People: Thanks be to God!

Gloria Patri #733

Glory Be to the Father

Psalter Reading

Psalm 104: 24-34, 35b

L: O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

P: Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

L: There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it.

P: All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

L: You give it to them; they gather it; open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

P: You hide your face, and they are terrified; you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.

L: You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth.

P: May your glory, O Lord, endure forever; may you rejoice in all your works.

L: You look at the earth and it trembles; you touch the mountains and they smoke.

P: I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being.

L: May the words of mine please you; I will rejoice in the Lord.

P: Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, and the wicked be no more.

All: Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hallelujah!
