A Grateful Year

Grace and gratitude belong together like heaven and earth. Grace evokes gratitude like the voice of an echo. Gratitude follows grace like thunder lightening. - Karl Barth

I have a lot to be grateful for this month, as I celebrate one year serving as your Associate Pastor. You have welcomed me, and my family, with wide open arms. You have showered us with gifts and kindness, you have expressed patience with me as you've helped me learn the traditions and practices around here. You have been brave enough to try new things alongside me, as we seek the way the Spirit may be calling us to new ministry opportunities. We have shared a wonderful first year, and I'm excited to see what God has in store for us next.

As I enter this new year, feeling particularly grateful. I'm reminded how difficult practicing gratitude actually is. To some, writing thank you notes, or going out of their way to thank a particular person, or group of people, comes naturally. To others, it takes time and effort to put gratitude into practice, expressing it to the people or groups who need to hear it.

However easy or difficult gratitude may be, I'm sure we all agree how important it is. Expressing or receiving gratitude is a powerful action that has certainly lifted us up over time, giving us life or energy to carry on with whatever we are doing.

In her book "Grateful", Diana Butler Bass expresses her challenges with expressing gratitude, and her commitment to take on 100 days of committing to practice gratitude more deeply. Near the end of her book, she expresses her deepened understanding of the importance of gratitude:

"Gratitude empowers us. It makes joy and love possible. It rearranges the way we see and experience what is around us. Gratitude makes all things new. It transforms how we understand what is broken and gives us the ability to act more joyfully with hope... Gratitude takes us from abstract belief to living compassion in the world."

The gratitude I've felt and shared with you all has been a gift, and I'm encouraged to continue to share it and let it impact the way I serve alongside you. I'm hopeful to commit more deeply to how I love into my gratitude this new year. Perhaps you can join me? Sending more thank-you cards, calling or texting people just to say "thank you," praying gratitude prayers for what God has done and how others have lifted us up.

May we enter this year with grateful hearts, that lead us to grateful actions.

Grace and Peace,
Mike

Angels live at Fairfield!

The Mission Committee would like to thank all of the Fairfield angels for making dreams come true for four children who attend Cold Harbor Elementary School. The school counselor interviewed the parents and found out what the children needed - coats, shoes, sweaters, shirts, pants, socks and underwear, and a few wishes - specific toys, fluffy blankets, books and games.

In addition, all 19 families that the school is helping received gift cards to Walmart to buy other items that they need for their families. The Men of the Church made a sizable contribution to the gift card purchases, allowing us to help all of the families on the counselor's list. Thank you!

When Christmas morning comes, know that your generosity will brighten the lives of these children and their families who have faced difficult times in the past, but with the help of our Fairfield Angels, will experience great joy this Christmas morning!

Dear Rev. Starzer,
 On behalf of our staff, board and the Veterans we serve, we express our sincere appreciation to you and your congregation for your kind and generous contribution of $200 which provides support to our residents in our supportive housing program for homeless Veterans. We truly thank you for your generosity and compassion. With the help of your gift, we are able to offer shelter, meals, case management, clothing, recovery services and many other forms of support. Because of you, we continue to see great success and as we continue working together, we will help our local veterans who are experiencing hunger and homelessness to have a brighter future.

All Church Night

January 7th

The date of All-Church Night for the month of January is January 7th beginning at 4:30pm. The schedule will be:

Starting at 4:30pm:

- Children's JOY Choir (Parents whose children participate in this group are encouraged to attend Adult Bible Study!)
- Adult Epiphany Bible Study - Adults will gather in the Open Door classroom for a fun exploration what "star" we are seeking in 2024, what we may be called into this new year of promise and opportunity. It will be led by pastor Mike. Stick around afterwards for our All Church Night Dinner at 5:30pm!
- All Church Dinner, 5:30pm

A nursery will be provided.

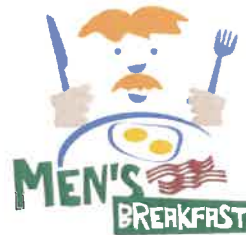

Prayer Shawl Ministry: In 2023, the Prayer Shawl Ministry delivered four prayer shawls, 18 lap robes and joyfully two baby blankets.

Even with all of this, the closet is still overflowing. As the new year is with us, we continue to prayerfully knit and crochet. If you would like to join in the fellowship, we meet on the first Wednesday of each month. If you don't know how to knit or crochet, we would be happy to help you learn.

The next meeting of the Prayer Shawl Ministry is Wednesday, January 3 at 10:00am in the Barlow Parlor.

Anna Barrowclough

Men of the Church - join us on Tuesday, January 9th starting at 7:00am at Cracker Barrel Restaurant on Bell Creek Road for our monthly Men of the Church Breakfast!

It is a great time of fellowship and a good way to fulfill the mission statement of the church: As a Christian community, together we BELONG to God, GROW in Christ and SERVE led by the Spirit. We encourage any and all men of the church to join us. Bring a friend!

Call or email Billy Putze (804-510-8719) or billyputze@comcast.net with any questions about the men of the church activities. You never have to reserve a seat, we will always have one open for you.

Service in Christ,
Billy Putze

The Fellowship Circle will start back on Tuesday, January 9, 10:00am in the Open Door classroom. All women are invited to join us for this daytime

Bible study. We will be studying the Book of Ephesians.

The Joyful Readers will meet again on Tuesday, January 9th, 7:00pm in the Heritage Hall for their monthly meeting. They will be discussing the book "Black Cake" by Charmaine Wilkerson. Barbara Wash will be the discussion leader and will lead the devotions. We hope all the ladies can join us.

Deacons Update:

In December, we gave thanks for our wonderful deacons and all the heart, soul, love, and time they put into their calling in 2023. In particular, we celebrated those rotating off the diaconate: Dwight Clark, Elizabeth Moorhouse, Pam Roberts, Debby Starzer and Melanie Rubeck. These wonderful deacons truly represented Christ in the ways they have cared and served our congregation.

On January 2nd the deacons will meet for some time of discernment, exploring who we are called to be and how we can shift to better serve the congregation, and the community beyond our walls. We'll be welcoming in our new deacons: Judie Thompson, Anna Barrowclough, Janet Chelette, Ginny Patterson, and Cindy Cattoi who is returning for another term. Pray for us, as we pray for you!

As fall turns to winter, our homeless population often suffers due to the cold. Please prayerfully consider Giving the Gift of Warmth to those less fortunate by providing your gently used blankets and gloves. Please place your contribution in the box located in the narthex through the month of January.

Youth Confirmation 2024

Starting this month, we will offer a confirmation class for our youth in grades 9th - 12th grade beginning on January 21st in the church library. Confirmation is a wonderful opportunity for youth to learn more about themselves, their faith, and the church. In late-Spring, they will also have a chance to create their own statement of faith and deepen their promises to this faith community. The class will take place on Sunday mornings, during the 10am Sunday School hour, along with other days/activities that may arise. Please prayerfully consider encouraging your high school student to join us for this class and contact Pastor Mike with your intention to join.

The Fairfield Youth Group had a wonderful closeout to 2023 at a youth group holiday party, what a wonderful group of youth and advisors we have! Our youth group will be taking a break in early January as families enjoy time off from school. We'll be back in action January 20 for a service activity with MCEF! More details to come in January. We'll meet for two hours on January 28th for movie night! Happy New Year everyone!

Youth Helping with Toy Drive

Keith Curran, with the help of Mitzi, Zoe, and McKenzie Marker, purchased and delivered a trunk

News from Mechanicsville Churches Emergency Functions (MCEF) and the One Stop Shop (OSS)

www.4mcef.com

THANK YOU to Fairfield members and friends who have contributed to MCEF during 2023. There will be some statistics next month on what was done during that year. MCEF is grateful to all the Mechanicsville churches for their support and interest as we all try to meet the needs of those in our community who need a helping hand.

Minutes of the monthly meetings of MCEF are now listed on the first page of the website at the very bottom under More Information. Hope you will check them out for current needs.

For your consideration as you think about Fairfield's first Sunday donations to MCEF are: bar soap, condiments (mayo, mustard, ketchup, syrup), canned meat products.

Looking for other items to donate? Consider the following:

- Women's XL and larger tops for fall and winter
- Men's sweatshirts (no advertisement logos please)
- New socks and underwear for adults, boys, girls and toddlers
- Linens: bed linens and towels

In November the OSS served 192 families (620 persons in the household), welcomed 16 new clients, gave out 105 bags of clothing, and 10 bags of linens.

Thank you for your support and Happy New Year

Under-aged Thinking

New INSIDE

Geodes look plain on the outside but contain beautiful crystals. Create these "rocks" to show how God makes us new on the inside.

What you need:

- Clean cardboard egg carton
- Scissors (and adult help)
- Epsom salt
- Plastic zippered bags (one per color of dye)
- Food coloring
- Glue
- Paintbrush

What you do:

1. Cut out the tops and bottoms of all the egg compartments so you can make 6 ball shapes.
2. In each bag, put 3 tablespoons of Epsom salt and a drop or two of food coloring. Seal and shake to mix.
3. With the paintbrush, spread glue inside two egg-carton halves. Sprinkle a spoonful of Epsom salt into those halves. Then close and shake.
4. Open your homemade geode and shake out excess salt.
5. Optional: Preserve the crystals with a coat of clear-drying glue.

HAPPY NEW YOU!

Changing the calendar each January is a reminder that God makes all things new.

Directions: Use the clues and the calendar code to complete 2 Corinthians 5:17, ESV.
