Almighty and eternal God, we thank you that you have not left us alone in life or in death. Loving us in Christ, you have brought us good news and delivered us from our sins. We confess that we have failed to walk in your Way and lived according to our own desires. Forgive our waywardness and rebellious spirits. In your mercy, forgive us. Send your Holy Spirit to renew our hearts and to turn them to the Lord. Reassure us that we have tasted new life and strengthen our hope in the power of the risen Lord. (silent prayers of confession) Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Psalm 139

L: O Lord, you have searched me and you know me.

P: You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.

L: You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.

P: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

L: Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?

P: If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

L: For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

P: I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

L: My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place.

P: All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.
